Date: _

Where Is Earth's Water?

For items 1–5, fill in the blank(s) to complete each statement correctly.

- 1. Violent thunderstorms are most likely to form from _____
- _____ is used to identify clouds that appear from 2. The prefix __ 2000 m to 6000 m above Earth's surface.
- 3. Clouds form when _____ currents cause warm, moist air to
- 4. Clouds are classified by _______, _______, and
- 5. When you see clouds forming in the sky, the water above you is forming droplets around particles such as dust, pollen, and other materials. These tiny particles are called

Complete the diagram of the water cycle by placing the words below in a logical sequence.

precipitation freezing condensation groundwater runoff evaporation transpiration

Level 8

Copyright © 2014 by Seventh-day Adventists/North American Division Office of Education